

Lowland Derbyshire Biodiversity Action Plan

The table below shows the relationship between the UK BAP Priority habitat and broad habitat types. For more information visit the UK BAP website at <http://www.ukbap.org.uk/>

UK Priority Habitats found in lowland Derbyshire

UK Priority Habitat	Lowland Derbyshire Habitat Action Plan
Arable Field margins	Field Margins
Calaminarian grassland (lead rakes etc)	Semi-nature grasslands
Coastal and Floodplain grazing marsh	Floodplain grazing marsh
Hedgerows (now includes all native hedgerows)	Ancient and or species-rich hedgerows
Inland Rock outcrop and scree habitats	(not developed yet)
Lowland calcareous grassland	Semi-natural grasslands
Lowland dry acid grassland	Semi-natural grasslands
Lowland Fens	Lowland swamp, mires, fens and reedbeds
Lowland heathlands	Heathlands
Lowland meadows	Semi-natural grasslands
Mesotrophic lakes	Standing Open water
Native Woodlands	Lowland Mixed broadleaved Woodland
Open mosaic habitats on previously developed land	(not developed yet)
Ponds	Standing open water
Reedbeds	Lowland swamp, mires, fens and reedbeds
Rivers	Rivers and streams
Traditional Orchards	(not developed yet)
Wet woodland	Wet woodland
Wood pasture & Parkland	Lowland wood Pasture, Parkland and Veteran Trees

Correct November 2007